RUTH'S HOMERS GIVE YANKS A VICTORY

TWO HOME RUNS IN CLOSE CONNECTION TURNS THE TABLES

Babe's Feat Unparalleled in Championship
Baseball—Yanks Score 4 to 2—Score Tied in Fourth—Brilliant Day for Left-Hander Pennock—All Calculations Upset

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Babe Ruth crossed with mighty tread today the threshold of world's series glory that has been barred to him for two years.

Driving out two thundering home run thrusts in successive innings, a feat unparalleled in championship baseball history, Ruth was the dynamo in the powerful attack that enabled the New York Yankees to turn the tables on the Giants, capture the second game of the series by a score of 4 to 2 and square the count with the world's title holders in the 1923 struggle for diamond supremacy.

First up in the fourth inning, with the score tied at one all, the great slugger put the Yankees into the lead with a terrific blow that landed atop the second tier of the right field grandstand and started the downfall of Hugh McCulligan, Giant ace. Another run was also scored in that hectic inning. On his next turn at bat, in the fifth, the Babe crashed one of Jack Bentley's southpaw slants into the lower right field stands. That blow was the climax of the game; Yankee victory was clinched then and it proved merely a formality to carry on to the finish.

ANALYSIS OF YANKS-GIANTS SERIES GAME

News Notes on Thurs- day's Most Unus- ual Ball Game

(By the Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—There were 243 pitched balls in the second game of the Giants-Yankees world's series, at the Polo Grounds today, six fewer than the number delivered in the opening game on Wednesday. Of the 243, Pennock of the Yankees was charged with 116, and McCulligan and Bentley with a combined total of 127.

Analysis shows 84 of the number were called balls, 53 called strikes, 25 foul strikes, 14 fouls, 34 resulted in infield outs, 14 in outfield outs and 19 in safe hits.

The individual records of the pitchers who worked during the game, follows:

Herb Pennock of the Yankees, pitched 116 balls in the nine innings he faced the Giants. Thirty-two of that number were called balls by Umpire Hank O'Day, 27 called strikes, 15 foul strikes, 8 fouls, 17 infield outs, 8 outfield outs, 9 safe hits.

McCulligan's Work

Hugh McCulligan of the Giants, pitched 49 balls in the three and two-thirds innings he opposed the Yankees, 29 of that number were called balls, 11 called strikes, four foul strikes, seven infield outs, two outfield outs, five safe hits.

Jack Bentley of the Giants pitched 78 balls in the five and one-third innings he served on the slab, 32 of that number were called balls, 15 called strikes, six foul strikes, six fouls, 10 infield outs, four outfield outs, five safe hits.

John J. McGraw gambled again today with his pitching staff, but this time he lost. Still holding his ace, Southpaw Art Nehf, in reserve, he sent in Hugh McCulligan, the third right hander to face the Yankees in two days, but Hugh proved an easy victim.

Southpaw Slants

Jack Bentley, who succeeded him, demonstrated that the Yankees take none too kindly to southpaw slants.

Nehf may be McGraw's choice tomorrow, now that he has lost his opening advantage. Jones or Shawkey appear likely Yankee mound candidates.

After the Yankees' defeat in the first game, Colonel Jacob Ruppert, owner of the American League champions, invited his mother to attend today's game as the club's honorary mascot. The tide changed with her presence and the colonel announced tonight she had been "signed" for the series.

Fluctuating with the tide of battle, betting odds showed the Yankees favorites again tonight.

IMPEACHMENT COURT READY TRY GOVERNOR

Walton's Recommendations are Being Ignored

(By the Associated Press.)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 11.—Plans for holding a court of impeachment to review the official conduct of elective state officers moved forward tonight with nothing to impede their progress.

Ignoring for the time recommendations of Governor J. C. Walton, that his bill opposing the Ku Klux Klan be immediately continued, house members at the opening session by a unanimous vote authorized their speaker, W. D. McBe, to name a committee of investigation and impeachment to inquire into all offenses charged against impeachable state officers.

The house then recessed until tomorrow afternoon when the personnel of the committee is expected to be announced. The senate awaiting the lead of the house, where all impeachment action originates, had previously recessed until tomorrow morning.

Sessions are short.

The sessions of both houses today were short and were largely occupied with the routine incident to organization. The officers agreed upon in caucus last night were officially invested with authority by vote of the members. The governor's message assailed the Ku Klux Klan as an "all-powerful and most demoralizing 'super-government'" and urged members of the legislature to adopt a bill which the executive submitted simultaneously to protect the people forever in their persons, property and fundamental liberties.

The executive did not appear before the session and he was not represented by any of his advisers.

Senator Gore Speaks

Following the reading of the governor's message, T. P. Gore, former United States senator from Oklahoma addressed the joint session. He admonished the legislators that they were here to see that we have government of laws, not men.

The speaker declared that he was not referring to "any particular individual" but his remarks were accepted as being directed at Governor Walton.

Altho the vote opening the way for the impeachment session was unanimous, there was strong indication that Governor Walton was not without support in the house.

EDUCATIONAL FACTS OF INTEREST DEVELOP AT CONVENTION

(By the Associated Press.)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 11.—Four hundred persons playing a variety of weird instruments, tonight formed a unique orchestra that played for the delegates attending the tenth National Recreation Congress in this city.

The orchestra under the direction of Prof. W. P. Dykema, of the University of Wisconsin, played ukuleles, toms, tom-toms, whistles, steamboat whistles, castanets, tamborines, triangles and snare drums.

Professor Dykema sought to demonstrate by his experiment that there is music in everybody. "No school child even in the high school should be required to bring his lessons home for study," said Mrs. Marietta Johnson, Greenwich, Conn., at the session on home life. Mrs. Johnson, who is director of the school of organic education, Fair Hope, Ala., stated that preparation of children to pass certain grades in school was entirely unnecessary.

"Fear is the greatest cause of arrested development," she continued. "When your neighbor cannot get a new idea it is a case of arrested development. The child is not getting ready to be an adult. His education should not be planned on adult needs."

C. A. Livingston of the Illinois Manufacturers' association, in his address to the congress declared that if the people of Russia had played more there never would have been a revolution. Mr. Livingston declared that business men played more than formally.

"They do not grind away as they used to just to make a little more money, as a consequence they are more interested than formerly in the amount of recreation their employees receive," he stated.

"It is a boomerang on industrial companies to pay men to play on athletic teams representing the factories. Such a plan destroys the spirit of the shop and impairs efficiency."

This was the statement of A. S. Hotchkiss.

TANKER SUNK AND ENTIRE CREW IS THOUGHT LOST

Mallory Liner Goes to the Scene but Finds Nothing

(By the Associated Press.)

KEY WEST, Fla., Oct. 11.—But little hope is held out here tonight for the crew of 30 of the Tanker City of Everett, which sank between 7 and 8 o'clock this morning 150 miles west of Dry Tortugas. The Mallory Liner Comal reported this afternoon that she had reached the spot where the Everett went down, and tonight after a search of the sea that vicinity sent a message to the local navy yard stating that she had been unable to find any trace of the Everett's life boats.

At the time the crew took to the life boats a strong wind was blowing and a heavy sea running. The first news of the doom of the Everett was received at the naval yards here at 7 o'clock this morning.

Last Message Sent

"Am lowering boats will sink soon; latitude 24.30 north; longitude 86 west."

Twenty-five minutes later another message was sent out reading as follows:

"Going down stern first; S. O. S. S. O. S."

That was the last word heard from the Everett. The Comal, 5 minutes later said she had heard the Everett's call and that she, Comal, was 75 miles away and was speeding to the scene. The coast guard cutter Saukewee left here in the hope of reaching the Everett before she went down.

GERMAN MINISTRY HAVING HARD TIME

(By the Associated Press.)

BERLIN, Oct. 11.—Storm signals are flying over the Reichstag building although less than a week has elapsed since Chancellor Stresemann's laboriously resuscitated ministry was again inducted into office. The four parties constituting the coalition group, which it was believed could command a sufficient majority to enable the chancellor to put through his dictatorial legislation, failed today to mobilize enough deputies to give Dr. Stresemann's authorization the necessary majority. Disorder in the ranks of the Socialists whose left wing assumed an obstreperous attitude and the successful filibustering tactics of the nationalists and communists forced the coalition leaders to seek refuge in having the final vote on this measure postponed until Saturday.

Whether the government will be able to command enough votes to push the bill thru the third reading with even a semi-respectable majority is tonight a matter of doubt. Upon the fate of the bill rests also the immediate future of Stresemann and his coalition.

WOUNDS WIFE, SUICIDES

Mankato, Minn., Oct. 11.—Gilbert Burt, shot and fatally wounded his wife and then committed suicide here today while under the influence of liquor. He was out on $500 bond to appear before the district court on the third charge of making moonshine. Ten children the young-est four and the oldest 29, survive.

DISCHARGE OF MEN IN RUHR STARTS RIOTS

Serious Trouble Predicted Unless Men
Given Work

(By the Associated Press.)

DUESSELDORF, Oct. 11.—Demonstrations by the unemployed, some of a threatening character have already begun in the Ruhr, in consequence of the discharge of thousands of workers by the metal industries. The occupation authorities here predict rioting and plundering unless something is done immediately to relieve the plight of the workers.

One of the most serious manifestations thus far occurred late this afternoon in Duesseldorf when more than 3,000 persons gathered around the town hall and soon became so menacing that the French cavalry and armored cars were summoned hastily.

The use of force, however, was unnecessary. A French officer addressed the crowd and told them to disperse quietly. The French, he said, would do what they could to aid them.

Demonstrations of a similar character were reported today from nearly every large town in the Ruhr. It is feared the situation of the workmen and their families will become desperate before the month is over. The state authorities are powerless to offer relief as the Berlin government has decided, that beginning October 17, all responsibility for unemployment in the Ruhr will be transferred to the local municipal authorities in the occupied area.

DRINKING POISONOUS LIQUOR KILLS SIX

(By the Associated Press.)

PLAN ROUTES FOR OCEAN AIR LINE

(By the Associated Press.)

LAKEHURST, N. J., Oct. 11.—Negotiations for a night and day air line between Berlin and Buenos Aires have been in progress for some time, it was declared by Captain Anton Heinen, German Zeppelin expert, who is pilot of the U. S. Navy's giant dirigible, the Shenandoah for the ZR-1.

Plans under consideration Captain Heinen said, call for the commission of four ships, two-thirds larger than the Shenandoah, capable of carrying 150 passengers each with mail and express between Central Europe and western South America in less than one-fourth of the time taken by steamship.

BANDITS KILL TRAINMEN AND ROB MAIL CAR

Crack S. P. Train is Held Up as Emerges
from Tunnel

(By the Associated Press.)

REDDING, Cal., Oct. 11.—Armed posses tonight are scouring the Siskiyou Mountains on the Oregon-California state line for bandits who held up Southern Pacific Southbound Passenger and Mail Train No. 13 at 2:40 o'clock this afternoon, shot and killed three trainmen and blew open the mail car and a safe killing a mail clerk. The robbers escaped into the mountains with an unknown amount of loot.

The dead:

S. L. Bates, of Dunsmuir, Engineer.

Marvin Seng of Redding, fireman.

E. O. Johnson of Ashland, brakeman.

E. E. Dougherty, mail clerk.

The robbery occurred as the train, the crack Southern Pacific San Francisco Express, was emerging from Tunnel 13, south of Siskiyou, on the state line 17 miles south of Ashland, Ore. The engine was about forty feet south of the tunnel entrance when an explosion blew away part of the roof of the tunnel and caused it to cave-in on the train.

Two Do Work

Two men participated in the robbery, according to advices received here. As the engine crew brought the train to a halt, these two advanced to the locomotive and shot the engineer, fireman and Johnson, who was said to have been riding with them, altho he was not on duty.

Bates and Seng are believed to have died instantly from bullet wounds in the head. Johnson was shot in the chest and died within a short time.

The bandits then ran to the mail car and blew open the door with a charge of dynamite, which ripped a gaping hole in the side of the conveyance, setting fire to it. This explosion is believed to have caused the death of Mail Clerk Dougherty, the only occupant.

Scoop up Contents

After gaining entrance to the car, the bandits are believed to have fired another charge of dynamite on the safe, containing valuable mail, blowing it open. They scooped up the contents and fled from the car, which already was burning.

As soon as the train was stopped, Conductor Barrett, who was in charge, started for the locomotive to investigate. He found Bates dead in the cab and Seng lying on the ground on the opposite side of the engine, also dead. Johnson was dying.

The train was pulled out of the tunnel and the fire in the mail car was extinguished.

Meanwhile officers of Ashland, Ore. and Redding and Yreka, Calif. had been notified of the holdup and shooting and a hurried call was sent out for volunteers to form posses to search for the bandits.

Assistance Offered

Salem, Ore.—Adjutant General George White said tonight after having read The Associated Press reports that should civil authorities call for assistance in pursuing the bandits who today wrecked a Southern Pacific Train near the Oregon-California line he would order a detachment of National Guard troops to join in the pursuit.

ROBBERS IN RAID GET LARGE BOOTY

(By the Associated Press.)

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 11.—Four negroes entered a gambling house at Lyons, south of this city early this morning and while two of them guarded the inmates who had been ordered to stick up their hands, the other two secured $1,000 from the cashier, and robbed the patrons of jewelry and small sums of money. The robbers, with two others left outside as lookouts, disappeared in a large automobile after warning the gamblers to remain inside for five minutes after they left.

FORD SAYS FORD MADE FOR MUSCLE SHOALS TO STAND

Charges Political Influences Are at Work to Prevent Him Obtaining Plant—Believes That Recent Negotiations Have Been with Mr. Weeks Instead of the United States

(By the Associated Press.)

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 11.—Henry Ford's offer for purchase of the Muscle Shoals project in Alabama is still before congress and will not be withdrawn, Henry Ford said today in a statement, his first public assertion since the sale of the Gorgas plant to the Alabama Power Company.

Mr. Ford charged that political influences were brought to bear to keep him from obtaining the plant and these "same influences prevented a vote in the house last spring on the sale of Muscle Shoals to the Ford Motor company."

Mr. Ford's statement says:

"The United States government, thru Major General Lansing H. Beach, asked me to bid on Muscle Shoals, not on a piece of Muscle Shoals. I did so, and because my bid included all of Muscle Shoals it was the only one thought worthy of reporting to congress. But I have a very strong conviction that while we have been negotiating with Mr. Weeks, we have not been negotiating with the United States government."

"Long ago Mr. Weeks matured in his mind the plan to break up Muscle Shoals and dispose of it piecemeal. When he sold the steam plant at Gorgas he pulled the first stitch in unravelling the greatest single prospect ever held out to the American farmer and manufacturer."

"This plan was formed by John W. Weeks, for the purpose as he thought of injuring Henry Ford. Which shows how much a Boston bond broker, in politics for a lifetime, knows about industrial problems. But the injury has shot past Henry Ford and has landed on the farmers. Muscle Shoals intact would be the greatest munition plant on earth. Muscle Shoals in its nitrate production is our greatest insurance against war, or it war comes our greatest assurance of victory—but apparently that does not count with the head of the war department. The Ford Motor company never has needed Muscle Shoals. We have waterpower sufficient for all our purposes. The only thing I could do at Muscle Shoals which I am not able to do elsewhere would be to make fertilizer for the farmer."

Will Not Withdraw

"My offer is still before congress. I shall not withdraw it. There is nothing whatever for me to explain. There is nothing that John W. Weeks can explain to me he talks from now until he leaves public life."

COOLIE LABOR IMPORTATIONS ARE PROTESTED

Federation of Labor Takes up Question of Immigration

(By the Associated Press.)

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 11.—More stringent immigration laws, with reduction in present quotas will be sought from the sixty-eighth congress as a result of action taken by the American Federation of Labor here today. Protest against importation of Coolie labor into Hawaii was voiced by the convention which adopted resolutions declaring there is no labor scarcity in Hawaii that would justify introduction of Coolie labor.

The Japanese question was brought before the convention by Paul Scharrenborg, San Francisco of the Seaman's Union and Jerry L. Sullivan, Cincinnati, of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union. Scharrenborg referred to conditions in Hawaii and asserted that they would have prevailed in California, if the people of that state had not agitated against Japanese immigration.

Japanese Growth

Sullivan spoke of the rapid multiplication of Japanese in this country and said this was a real menace.

Efforts to organize migratory workers and to assist these to assist themselves were ordered by the convention after it had taken action denouncing the Industrial Workers of the World.

The executive counsel was instructed to turn the batteries of publicity on the I. W. W., many members of which it was charged were in the employ of interests seeking to destroy organized labor. Election of officers and selection of the next convention city was made a special order for tomorrow morning. Re-election of President Samuel Gompers and the other officers was predicted.

BRITISH-AMERICAN ALLIANCE ADVOCATED

(By the Associated Press.)

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Oct. 11.—Lloyd George, former British premier, at a conference with newspaper correspondents today, took occasion to advocate a British-American understanding which, standing for a rational peace, he said, could have it. No country, he asserted, would stand against such a union and it would be quite unnecessary even to fire a gun. Without such an understanding on the part of the two great English-speaking communities, he added, there would not be peace in the world.

Asked to what form such an arrangement would take he replied that the substance rather than the form was important and that "you don't need anything on paper."

The scenic beauties of one of the natural wonder spots of the American continent claimed the former premier's attention today. He came here from Toronto and spent five hours on both the Canadian and the American sides.

Laramie, Wyo., Oct. 11.—J. A. Patton of Salt Lake City, Utah, was killed and G. R. Dougal, his companion, was injured today when a freight train struck a speeder on which they were riding near Medicine Bow, Wyoming. Patton was assistant division engineer of the Union Pacific railroad.

A local blacksmith recently attended a convention of men engaged in the same line of industry. The fact that a blacksmith's convention was held goes to show that not every blacksmith's shop has been displaced by a filling station or a garage, as is true in many instances. The village blacksmith's shop still has its place in industry and in many instances continues as a very profitable business.

The Journal is in receipt of a communication from a young man who protests strenuously because there is no Y. M. C. A. building in Jacksonville. He thinks that the directors of the local association have been derelict in not pushing the project of a new building. While Y. M. C. A. work is not now being conducted in the city, it is a fact that the directors have held conferences at stated intervals and have thoroughly canvassed the matter of a new building program. For reasons they regard as sound they have postponed the matter until the prospect seems better for raising the large fund that would be necessary to erect a new and modern building.

A WORLD POWER CONFERENCE

American engineering, technical and industrial organizations are preparing to take part in a big "world power conference" that is to be held in London next July.

Here is something potentially more important than any of the diplomatic pow-wows now interesting various nations. It may help one's sense of real values to run through this account of what a statesman would call the "agenda" of the conference:

"The potential resources of each country is hydro-electric power, oil and minerals will be taken up, and experiences in the development of scientific agriculture, irrigation and transportation by land, water and air compared. Conferences of civil, electrical, mechanical, marine and mining engineers, technical experts and authorities on scientific and industrial research will be held.

"There will be consultations of power consumers and manufacturers of instruments of production, and educational methods in different countries will be reviewed. Discussions will be arranged on the financial and economic aspects of industry, nationally and internationally.

"The question of establishing a permanent world bureau for the collection of data, the preparation of inventories of the world's resources and the exchange of industrial and scientific information through appointed representatives in the various countries will come up."

It may be admitted that real progress, prosperity and happiness for the human race lie along these lines of friendly scientific co-operation for the utilization of the world's resources. When one thinks of "world power" as a natural energy to be made available for man's use, rather than mere political or military power, a lot of foolish illusions fall away and the possibilities of human life suddenly look clearer.

W. J. BRYAN'S PUBLIC LIFE IS REVIEWED

New Book by Wayne Williams Seeks to Show That Time Has Vindicated Commemorative Views and Principles.

A book which will be of interest to the friends and admirers of William J. Bryan is recently from the press of the Fleming H. Revell Co. The book is by Wayne C. Williams and the title, "Williams Jennings Bryan—A Study in Political Vindication."

The author says in his foreword that the book is not intended as a biography of Mr. Bryan, but that it is written with a distinct purpose—to prove that events have vindicated his views and principles.

Mr. Williams, whose home is in Denver, Colo., in further emphasizing this view of Mr. Bryan's public record, goes on to say: "No other man in American public life has ever lived to see so many of his ideas and reforms accepted by his political opponents and the people at large and established in the fundamental law and institutions of the land as has Mr. Bryan. And no other political leader in American politics (possibly in the world) has ever stood such a storm of criticism or survived such vigorous attacks as has the subject of this book. The astonishing political vitality of Mr. Bryan deserves careful study."

"It has been the unhappy lot of most men who seek reform either to be laughed off the stage or die full of disappointment over the failure of their fellow-men to see the thing which they had seen. History is filled with leaders who, too far in advance of their time, were crucified by their own generation and immortalized by succeeding generations."

"But this disappointment has not come to Mr. Bryan, for he has seen his ideas embodied in the fundamental law of the land; his personality grow with his own generation; his principles become more and more popular both at home and abroad. This is due in part to his early entrance into the place of greatest prominence in our national life; to the rapidity and extent of our modern means of communication, to the power of his eloquence and the faith in his in his inherent honesty of purpose and deep sincerity of conviction."

The contents of this interesting study of Mr. Bryan's career presented in eight chapters, as follows:

Democracy's lawgiver. World Conquest and World War. The Trusts. A Democratic View of Roosevelt.

World Peace. Monetary Reform. Four Great Reforms. The Bryan of To-morrow.

The author in his final word declares, that while approving Mr. Bryan's career, we may add that the future is also secure. Mr. Williams says: "No matter how deeply his life has touched and influenced his own generation, it is destined to influence generations who will never know him in the flesh and this is immortality indeed."

The members of the board are: Mrs. Will Arnold, Mrs. W. D. Scott, Mrs. Collins, Prentice, Mr. Roberts, Mrs. E. E. Hart, Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. Anderson of Chaplin, Mrs. Fred Carter, and Mrs. Vasey of Markham, Dr. Grace Dewey, Mrs. A. L. The executive board of the Jackson County Federation of Clubs voted unanimously to oppose the discontinuance of the sanatorium fund at the coming election. Having raised nearly $3,000 by sacrifice and strenuous effort they are most unwilling to contemplate the permanent closing of Oak Lawn.

The action was taken at the quarterly board meeting held at the hospitable home of Mrs. Frank Hunter near Strawn's Crossing. Mrs. Frank Green, president of the federation and Mrs. William Cleary were assistant hostesses. Twenty members of the board gathered from many precincts in the county, were seated at flower-decked tables for a delightful noon luncheon, after which the president called the meeting to order and asked the chairman of the health committee to explain the situation which threatens the work of exterminating tuberculosis in Morgan county.

The facts stated were that a vote to discontinue the sanatorium fund would mean, not only the permanent closing of Oak Lawn, but the loss of all funds to carry on nursing and clinical service under the Glackin law.

A new law makes it possible to unite several counties and together conduct a district sanatorium. Such a plan would make it possible to fill the sanatorium with patients and so lessen the overhead and reduce the per capita expense, bringing the resultant expense to the county within a reasonable figure. Even if Oak Lawn were closed for a time while nurses and clinical demonstrations proved to neighboring counties that the plan was practical and economical, the beautiful and well equipped building could be re-opened as a district sanatorium on a firmly financed scientific basis.

Much discussion followed and plans were made for a publicity campaign throughout the county.

Dr. Grace Dewey, chairman of the legislative committee, gave a most interesting talk on the League of Women Voters, of which she is county president, showing the need of education and citizenship for all women and urging 100 per cent representation among federated clubs.

At 3:00 P. M. there will be a round table discussion for Superintendents of small institutions and detention homes.

Saturday Evening—Session 7:30, business meeting of the Conference. At 8:00 P. M. the meeting will be in charge of Mr. A. L. Bowen of Springfield, Chairman of the Committee on Community development. One of the speakers will be Mr. Eugene T. Lies, Chicago, Special Representative, Playground and Recreation Association of America.

An orchestra furnished music throughout the day and hundreds of women from Jacksonville and vicinity thronged the establishment during the opening hours.

Roses were used in a very generous way for decorations and aside from their beauty and fragrance gave added color to the store interior. Mr. Goldstein has not spared expense in the furnishings of his store and the whole scheme of interior decoration has been carried out in an artistic way. The fixtures are all in mahogany and the walls are done in a soft gray color. Heavy green velvet carpeting covers all the floors and modern lighting fixtures add in making the interior very attractive.

The fitting rooms are modernly equipped and all the departments are arranged in a way that will prove of convenience to the women patrons. The stocks displayed yesterday gave proof of Mr. Goldstein's long experience in the handling of women's apparel. The offerings were purchased very recently in New York, where Mr. Goldstein's buying connections make it possible for him to secure the best goods in quality and style and at reasonable prices.

The departments include coats, dresses, suits, millinery, underwear, sweaters, gloves and still other special lines. The opening will continue thru today and tomorrow, and a large force of competent salespeople is ready to extend every possible courtesy to those who visit the store. Roses were given yesterday as souvenirs.

Reception for Pastor. The members of the Presbyterian church and congregation gave a reception for their new pastor, Rev. O. W. Lough and family Thursday evening in the church parlors. A very pleasing program of instrumental and vocal music and readings was given and various games also had part in the program of the evening. Dainty refreshments were served and in every way the evening was a pleasant one.

News Notes. Mrs. Clayton Stewart, who is visiting her son west of Winchester, was a visitor here Thursday.

W. J. BRYAN'S PUBLIC LIFE IS REVIEWED

New Book by Wayne Williams Seeks to Show That Time Has Vindicated Commemorative Views and Principles.

A book which will be of interest to the friends and admirers of William J. Bryan is recently from the press of the Fleming H. Revell Co. The book is by Wayne C. Williams and the title, "Williams Jennings Bryan—A Study in Political Vindication."

The author says in his foreword that the book is not intended as a biography of Mr. Bryan, but that it is written with a distinct purpose—to prove that events have vindicated his views and principles.

Mr. Williams, whose home is in Denver, Colo., in further emphasizing this view of Mr. Bryan's public record, goes on to say: "No other man in American public life has ever lived to see so many of his ideas and reforms accepted by his political opponents and the people at large and established in the fundamental law and institutions of the land as has Mr. Bryan. And no other political leader in American politics (possibly in the world) has ever stood such a storm of criticism or survived such vigorous attacks as has the subject of this book. The astonishing political vitality of Mr. Bryan deserves careful study."

"It has been the unhappy lot of most men who seek reform either to be laughed off the stage or die full of disappointment over the failure of their fellow-men to see the thing which they had seen. History is filled with leaders who, too far in advance of their time, were crucified by their own generation and immortalized by succeeding generations."

day, December 18 and 19, and the club has been invited to make an exhibit at the institute, it was voted to change the date of the regular meeting which falls on December 18 to the following Thursday, December 20, and the president was instructed to appoint a committee to take charge of the exhibit which will be shown at the institute on Tuesday afternoon and then brought back to White Hall to be shown at the Woman's club meeting on the 19th. This exhibit will be Christmas gifts that can be made at a cost of ten cents and gifts that may be made at cost of twenty-five cents, materials only to count and time not reckoned.

Announcement was made of the District Federation of Women's Clubs which will meet in Roodhouse on October 30 and 31. The secretary read the constitution. Mrs. J. D. Rowe read a most excellent paper on "Corn Meal As a Food and Ways of Using It." Following the paper the hostesses demonstrated corn bread sticks and served with baked beans prepared by Mrs. W. A. Wigginton. The following recipes were:

Corn Bread Sticks.
2 cups corn meal.
1 cup sour milk.
2 teaspoons baking powder.
2 eggs.
1 tablespoon sugar.
1 teaspoon salt.
Mix and bake in special pans. The sticks resemble lady fingers and are delicious. Mrs. Grover Thompson prepared them.

Baked Beans.
3 pints white beans.
1 1/2 pints tomato juice.
1 onion.
2 heaping tablespoons sugar.
Salt to taste.
Small piece of fresh pork or salt bacon.

Method—Soak beans over night. Cover with water and place in fireless cooker and let cook all morning, then put in oven and bake for one-half hour. Have the beans covered with water when placed in oven. May be boiled on top of stove, but the beans will not stay whole.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. A. W. Foreman on North Main street and she will be assisted by Mrs. Ed Baldwin, Mrs. Henry Van Meter, Mrs. Arthur Shenkle and Mrs. Fred Mitts. The program committee will have charge of the Halloween games which will take the place of the regular program.

Wed In Jerseyville.
Harry Otis Nash and Miss Nelle Ridings were united in marriage by the Presbyterian minister at Jerseyville on Thursday morning, October 4, at 9 o'clock. They were unattended and following the ceremony they returned to Carrollton and spent the day at the Greene County Fair, keeping their wedding a secret during the day. In the evening they came on to White Hall and announced the marriage to relatives and friends here.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ridings of the High Street neighborhood and has a host of friends in her home neighborhood and in White Hall. The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Nash and served a little more than two years in the army, being stationed in the Base Hospital post office at Camp Taylor until after the armistice was signed and then transferred to the Walter Reed hospital at Washington. The wedding celebrated the sixth anniversary of his entrance into the army. For the past several months he has been employed by the Korger Grocery company at Jerseyville. White Hall and Roodhouse. On Friday of last week he was transferred to Quincy where he will have charge of one of the stores there. Mrs. Nash will go to Quincy next Sunday and they expect to do light house-keeping.

Apple Creek Club Meets.

The Apple Creek Prairie club met with Mrs. Marcus North on West Franklin street Wednesday afternoon with twenty-seven members and eight guests present. Mrs. North was assisted by her daughters, Miss Minnie North and Mrs. Frank Weis.

Roll call was answered by miscellaneous questions. Each member brought a question and these were exchanged and answered by other members.

The club is compiling a cook book and recipes for desserts other than pie were brought Wednesday. This club is a social and philanthropic association and recently donated a quantity of canned fruit to the Edith Walton hospital.

Mrs. P. N. McLaren gave a humorous reading and responded to a hearty encore. The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. P. Lowenstein on North Main street and she will be assisted by Mrs. Roy Campbell and Mrs. Calvin Vanderheyden.

ANTI-HORSE THIEF ASSOCIATION IN ANNUAL SESSION

Taylorville, Ill., Oct. 11. — With horse thievery obsolete, the Illinois Anti-Horse thief society still has many things to oppose, and holds annual conventions in behalf of motor car owners, farmers, whose lands are traversed by trespassing hunters, and others who may be the victims of ruthlessness of various kinds. The membership is also hot on the trail of the bootlegger and the violators of the Volstead act.

This year's convention will be held in this city Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 17 and 18. Founded in Clark County, Missouri in 1854 by Major David McKee, the Association flourished for many years and boasted of a large membership all over the country. Many stolen horses were recovered and the thieves prosecuted.

The gradual disappearance of the horse, led to the disbandment of many local branches, but many are still in existence and are vigilant in behalf of the interests of members, largely farmers. The members co-operate with the civil authorities for the apprehension of criminals and recovery of stolen property.

At the coming convention, resolutions will be adopted, asking the legislature to adopt a law, requiring all drivers of motor cars to carry a certificate of ownership, similar to that in Missouri and which act will greatly assist the authorities in locating stolen cars and rounding up car thieves. The delegates will be given a banquet on the evening of the opening day. Preparations are under way to entertain several hundred. S. M. Holben of Edinburg is secretary of the Illinois body.

LONG TERMS FOR AVENGING MOROS

Manila.—(A. P.)—Hadiya is a Moro girl. Customs and religious rituals in Moroland did not permit her the enjoyment of a happy romantic life as would have been ordinarily her's as a birthright. She was in love with Lahaman, a young Moro from another tribe, and vowed to marry.

True to her promise Hadiya, in the summer of 1922, fled from the paternal home of her lover and was married. The ire of her parents and fellow tribesmen was aroused and enmity grew between her tribe and that of her husband. But the marriage had already taken place, and the best that could be done was to demand a rich dowry from the family and tribe of Lahaman. Demand was made for that dowry else Hadiya should return to her home and abandon her husband. But the dowry was not forthcoming.

So Hadiya's tribesmen took the law into their own hands and assaulted Lahaman's relatives and friends. The attack resulted in the killing of Datu Tantonk, and the Moros, Salip Ali and Sirang, for which crime the assailants, Saslin, Buto, Ahang, Dayong and Mamang, were prosecuted and convicted of homicide. The supreme court recently confirmed the lower court's decision.

Saslin is to serve three successive terms of imprisonment of 12 years and one day each; Buto two successive terms of 12 years and one day each; and Ahang, Dayong and Mamang, one term of 12 years and one day, besides severally and jointly paying indemnity to the families of their victims.

ANALYSIS OF YANKS-GIANTS SERIES GAMES

after their second game triumph.
Several wagers were made at odds of 10 to 9 and 6 to 5 on the American League champions.
The Old "Babe"
Babe Ruth was one of the most

vehement of the "squawkers"
when the Yankees gained en-masse about Umpire Bob Hart to protest against Young's alleged unfair actions. The Bambino gesticulated and kicked up dust
in a manner reminiscent of his outbreaks in the 1922 season.
Ward's all-round play and the marvelous defensive work of Joe Eagan were high lights in the Yankee victory. Ward connected for a single in the eighth, in addition to his home run in the second, besides handling seven chances in the field.

CLASS SCRAPS TABOO

vised the student body following the freshman-sophomore scrap which lasted two days recently.
"It has proved," the president said
"that even with the most careful supervision, the kind of class
scrap which has been held in recent years is undesirable at Knox."
He said the scrap had degenerated into pugilism between individuals.

ANSWERS HOUSEWIFE'S REQUIREMENTS NICELY

There has come in recent years a greater appreciation on the part of housewives of the importance of study of the food subject in women's clubs, lectures by domestic scientists, pure food shows—all these have aided in effecting this desirable result. And with this growing understanding of pure food selection and sanitary preparation has come a better appreciation of the value of JELKE GOOD LUCK Margarine to the housewife; for no product can better answer the requirements of housewives in respect to purity.

GOOD LUCK is made from ingredients of so notably fine a quality as to please the most fastidious. The methods employed throughout the factory in its preparation, as well as those used in marketing it, are likewise sanitary.

On the score of purity, therefore,
GOOD LUCK measures up in excellent fashion to the requirements and training of the modern day housewife. It is, in fact, an ideal food for the woman who is bent on protection of the health and welfare of her household through the care she exercises in the choice of pure food. But there is also another feature in connection with GOOD LUCK that makes its purchase desirable.

All living costs are admittedly high.
Next to rent, food bills are the largest single item on the family budget, and take a large slice of anyone's income, no matter how large that income may be. The larger the family the more serious is the problem of high food costs.
Here again GOOD LUCK with its modest cost is a relief.

Due in part to large scale production and to modern methods, and in part to the fact that more abundant, and therefore less costly but equally nutritious, fats are used in its manufacture GOOD LUCK is remarkably low in price, and by using it the housewife makes a decided saving. To take advantage of GOOD LUCK, therefore, is to find a welcome friend with which to cut the cost of good eating. The response of JELKE GOOD LUCK
Margarine to the call of modern living conditions makes it the logical choice of any woman for a spread for bread upon her dining table and as a shortening in her kitchen.

Through arrangements made with retail food dealers in every part of the country it is possible for the housewife to find GOOD LUCK for sale—while strictly fresh—conveniently near her home. In buying it she has assurance of a food of undoubted purity and high excellence
at a low price.—Advertisement.

FOREST FIRES ARE AGAIN REPORTED IN PARTS OF MICHIGAN

Assistance Sent to Farmers in Ironwood Territory

(By the Associated Press)
IRONWOOD, Mich., Oct. 11.—
Winds of high velocity developing shortly after noon today caused smoldering brush and forest fires in the upper Michigan peninsula to again threaten farms
and power plants in various areas
close to the south shore of Lake Superior. In northwestern Gogebic county near Little Girl Point, fresh fires coming across the state line in Wisconsin late today were menacing farms.

New fire fighting forces were sent from Ironwood to lend assistance to the farmers in that section while little information
trickled from the Calumet area and the fire area surrounding Ontonagon. It is the belief of Deputy Fire Warden Claude Larson, here that rangers there have the fires under control.

Damaged Territory
There have been no new calls for assistance. Going into the fire areas today a representative of The Associated Press found most of the damage confined to cut over and slashed territory.
Late this afternoon the winds died down and hopes were entertained that no new area will be under flame.

Superior, Wis., Oct. 11.—Rain
late tonight relieved the fire situation at Solon Springs, Wis., where seven farms had been threatened by brush fires carried before a 25 mile an hour breeze
during the day.

The danger is said to be over.

BABE RUTH

before he was able to walk to first base.

The Yankees gathered ten hits off McQuillan and Bentley, only one more than the Giants collected off Penneck, but the blows of the American Leaguers were of the more solid variety. Both clubs hit hard sporadically and Ruth was not the only one to gain home run glory.

Aaron Ward, black-haired second seeder, who played an excellent all-around game, scored the first run in the second inning with a booming clout to the upper tier of the left field grandstand.

In the Giants' half of the inning, Irish Meusel tied the score
with a duplicate smash.

Ruth's first monumental crash opened the fourth inning, but the Yankees increased their advantage to two runs when Pipp
singled, went to third as "Pep" Young juggled Schang's smash and scored on Scott's drive to center. That blow ended McQuil-lan's stay on the mound. Assuming the rest of the game, Bentley
batted by hitting Penneck,
but then settled down to retire
the side by forcing Witt to fly out.

After Ruth's second homer in the fifth—a clout that brought the Babe one of the most thund-erous ovations he has ever been accorded—Bob Meusel got to second when Young mishandled his single, but Pipp and Ward were easy for Bentley.

In the sixth a Giants' rally was checked after one run, the last of the game.

It looked as if the tide of battle was about to turn when Goh-Frisch and Young opened with successive line singles, the third sucker scoring on Young's blow,
but here the Yankee defense stiffened behind Penneck's cool box
work.

With Young on first and Frisch on second, Irish Meusel drove a grounder to Scott who tossed to Ward with an easy play in sight.
Young was forced out but in diving to second he upset Ward and blocked the throw to first. It was the signal for a vehement protest by the Yankees. It was something of the irony of fate that Cunningham, the next Giant batter hit directly to Scott and this time the double play went thru and the Giant sortie ended.

The Giants had another chance to break thru in the eighth when Young and Irish Meusel singled with two down, but Gowdy batting for Cunningham, skied out to Witt. The champions went out in order in the ninth. In the Yankee half of the ninth, Dugan paved the way for Ruth's turn at bat with a double.

Once the Babe swung and missed, once the ball went by,
then the creak of wood and leather and then the mighty shout. As-tonishingly high and far out to center flew the ball but under it settled Casey Stengel, hero of yesterday who had come back for just one inning of play and this was written for the mighty deeds
of the Babe for the day.

EIGHT KILLED WHEN TRAIN STRIKES BUS LOAD OF CHILDREN

Several Others Fatally Injured—Six Jump to Safety

(By the Associated Press)
AKRON, O., Oct. 11.—The countryside around Rootstown,
is in a stricken condition tonight
the result of an accident near here this morning which resulted in the instant death of eight school children and the serious injury of four other persons two of whom are expected to die.

The Cleveland, the fastest passenger train on the Pennsylvania railroad between New York and Cleveland crashed into a school bus carrying seventeen children. Six of them escaped by jumping.

The dead and injured were taken to Ravenna where the injured were placed in hospitals.

T. H. Burke and R. B. Monro, inspectors for the Ohio State public utilities commission arrived in Rootstown late today. While reserving their opinion for a formal report the inspectors declared that the crossing was "unquestionably" dangerous.

Tramman blames the accident on Louis Kline, 62, driver of the bus, who was seriously injured.
According to F. G. McCaslin, of New Castle, Pa., engineer of the train, the bus came to a full stop as it reached the crossing and then despite the shrieks of the locomotive whistle, pulled slowly onto the tracks. His story was corroborated by B. E. Lambert, Pittsburgh, fireman, and several passengers.

ARE WOMEN USING FRANCHISE RIGHT?

Statement Issued Showing Percentage by Counties of Illinois
Women's Votes Cast

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (By the A.
P.)—Do Illinois women vote?—
is a question which the Illinois branch of the National League of Women Voters will endeavor to solve at the next national election in November 1924. Contemplating the fact that only about 46 per cent of the eligible women voters went to the polls at the general election of 1920, the league has taken upon itself the task of raising this percentage to 75 per cent or more of the total vote, according to the official bulletin of the league.

In the last presidential election,
the bulletin points out, Illinois
women cast only a 46.6 per cent vote. The total vote, both men and women, was only 61 per cent of the number eligible to vote.
The men made a much better showing than the women, 74.7
per cent of them casting their ballots.

"The task of getting out a 75 per cent vote in 1924 belongs,"
therefore, mostly to the women,"
said the bulletin.

The Best Showing
Of all the counties in Illinois,
the best showing in 1920 was made by Edgar county with 82 per cent of its voters at the polls.
Pulaski with 81 and White with 80, ranked second and third. The only other counties which had a showing of 75 per cent or better
were Clark, Crawford, Cumberland and Lawrence.

The largest counties apparently made the poorest showing.
Cook, for instance, has a record of only 58 per cent of its total vote cast; Peoria has 53; Kane has 56; McLean has 61; Macon has 65; Rock Island has 56; St.
Clair has 55; and Sangamon has 65.

The county with the lowest percentage in 1920 was Calhoun which polled only 49 per cent of its available vote. It cast a total of 2,109 of which 1,966 were women.

ODD NAMES FOR CHURCHES

"Holy Zebra," "Holy Turtle" and "Eelopot" Among Titles That Are Used.

"I well recall the name of the Church of the 'Holy Zebra,' as applied to All Souls' Unitarian church, Fourth avenue and Twentieth street, New York," writes William R. Hammond, in the New York Herald. "I remember bearing the term applied as far back as the time when that great apostle of Unitarianism, the late Rev. Dr. Henry W. Bellows, presided with all the gift of his eloquence and scholarship over All Souls' patriotic and influential congregation. Brooklyn, too, had a Unitarian church that was always known, in addition to its regular name, as the 'Church of the Holy Turtle,' an appellation unquestionably bestowed on it on account of the squat look of the church edifice. Brooklyn also had for years a Methodist Episcopal church edifice known as the 'Eelopot,' because the Brooklyn girls went fishing there for beaus.

Another Brooklyn church, an exceedingly influential and, at that time, wealthy Brooklyn congregation, was known as the 'Church of the Holy Ice Cream Freezer.' The shepherd of the flock in question, to those who had the inestimable privilege of knowing him, was a most generous, charitable and lovable man. The congregation itself, however, was inclined to be cold, offish and to take to itself the publishers' term 'all rights reserved.' Hence the origin of the nickname.

STANDS GUARD IN RIVER

"Soldier of the Bronx," in Faded Blue, Has Kept Thirty-Year Vigil.

South of the new bridge that spans the Bronx river at Gun Hill road, the "Soldier of the Bronx" still maintains the solitary vigil in the river. If the inscription of 1893 on his pedestal is authentic he has been on duty 30 years. The blue has almost faded from his military cloak, leaving bare the graying wood.

The figure is a life-size replica of a Civil war soldier. It stands on a stone pedestal in the shallow waters of the Bronx river. The stream is narrow at the spot and one can approach close to the statue from either bank.

Speculation as to the reason for the statue's existence and position in the river has given rise to several legends. Probably there is a bit of truth in each. According to one account, a wood carver who lived in a cottage with rear garden extending to the water's edge, set the statue in the river as a distinctive touch to mark his place. Whatever his origin the "Soldier of the Bronx" stands in the river through time and the works of the parkway commission have changed the section roundabout. The weather has roughened his contours a bit, but nevertheless he remains at his solitary post.—New York Times.

May Blossom.
The May blossom is the subject of some curious superstitions. Both the black and white thorn are said to be descended from the thorn of India, which, being sprung from lightning, is not only immune from danger in a thunderstorm, but possesses many magical gifts, a recent writer tells us. The leaves from it are believed by many people to be a cure for all cases of inflammation, while a bough of blossoms hung at the door is safeguard against witches, but the blossom should not be taken into the house lest it bring disease with it. Many old countrymen will not cut down a Hawthorn bush. They do not know why, though actually they are perpetuating an old belief that the bush is sacred, because from it the crown of thorns was made.

The Advance Guard.
A Scottish minister in a country parish, whose post was very unremunerative, was promoted to the more desirable one of chaplain to a prison in a large town. This caused annoyance to his congregation as the old minister had difficulty in finding a successor. However, the minister refused to give up his appointment, and in consequence there was a good deal of ill-feeling between himself and his parishioners. They showed their resentment in many ways, but the minister waited patiently until the time arrived for him to preach his farewell sermon. Then he chose as his text: "I go to prepare a place for you."

Minerals of Maine.
It is interesting to recall that at one place in Maine, Catherine Hill of Franklin, Hancock county, there has been found every known mineral and some that, until discovered there, were unheard of. Very few people in Maine today know that there is tin in the state and that at one time a tin mine was in operation here. Such is the fact. This mine was located in the town of Winslow. That was a good many years ago, but the shaft of the mine is still to be seen.—Portland Press-Herald.

Genius Explained.
Genius is nothing more than our common faculties refined to a greater intensity. There are no astonishing ways of doing astonishing things. All astonishing things are done by ordinary materials.—B. R. Hayden.

WOMAN MEETS DEATH TRYING TO SAVE BABY

Mrs. L. A. Fitzsimmons Dies as Result of Burns—Attempted Rescue of Child from Flaming Home

Mrs. Laura M. Fitzsimmons, wife of L. A. Fitzsimmons of Woodson, died at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Passavant hospital, as the result of burns received in a fire which destroyed the Fitzsimmons home yesterday morning. Mrs. Fitzsimmons was fearfully burned about the body, face and lower extremities. She was in her back yard about 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning when she discovered that her home was on fire at the rear. Thinking to save her three-year old son, who was in the house, she ran and opened the back door. Flames rushed out and enveloped her body, setting her clothing on fire.

The stricken woman ran toward the back of the premises, where she was discovered by Pete Gaines, a Woodson resident. He tore off her burning clothing and wrapped her in a blanket, smothering out the fire around her body.

Meanwhile, the fire had been discovered by other residents of the community. Mr. Fitzsimmons, who was at his store was notified of the fire by a telephone operator. He rushed to the house and learned that the baby was inside. He went in the front way and found the child in a corner overcome with smoke. He brought him to safety, and not till then did he learn that his wife was seriously burned.

Mother and child were placed in an auto and rushed to Passavant hospital, where the mother died yesterday afternoon as a result of the shock and the deep burns. The baby, little Kenneth Fitzsimmons, was reported last night to be much improved. He had recovered from the asphyxiation caused by the smoke and was in an encouraging condition.

The remains of Mrs. Fitzsimmons were removed to the Giffham Funeral Home, where at 3 o'clock Coroner Rose held an inquest. Her husband, L. A. Fitzsimmons, was the only witness and the deposition of Dr. Carl E. Black, who attended the injured woman, was also given as evidence. The verdict of the jury was that deceased came to her death thru burns received in an attempt to rescue her baby from her burning home.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons was about 40 years of age at the time of her death. She is survived by her husband and four children; two daughter, Marjorie and Lois, and two sons, Gayland and Kenneth Wayne. She is also survived by her mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Smith of Woodson and one sister, Mrs. William Galloway, of Jacksonville. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

The coroner's jury consisted of Edgar Jones, foreman, J. L. Tamm, Glen M. Howard, Frank Trousdale, Charles J. Roberts and F. H. Brockhouse, clerk.

The Fitzsimmons residence was totally destroyed. Neighbors and friends saved most of the household goods, except those in the kitchen, where the fire evidently started. The community has been greatly shocked by the tragedy, and the deepest sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband and children.

DR. PALMER SPEAKER AT MEDICAL MEETING

Talks on Tuberculosis Question—Physicians Lunch at Kiwanis Camp—Clinic Well Attended

Dr. George T. Palmer of Springfield, president of the Illinois Anti-Tuberculosis association, was the speaker last evening at the meeting of the Morgan County Medical society held at the public library. He gave a general explanation of the tuberculosis problem, care of patients, etc., and talked particularly of the value of the Morgan county sanitarium. Dr. Palmer said that fighting tuberculosis is a public health problem and that it should properly be correlated with public health work.

The members of the society were guests at the supper at the Kiwanis shelter dedication, after which they returned to the city and held their meeting. About 23 members and guest were present, including a number of out of town physicians, Drs. Knox and Garrison of White Hall, Drs. Converse and Jewett of Carrollton, Dr. Perkins of Franklin, Dr. Britton of Varden, and Dr. Smith of Pittsfield were among those present.

The first monthly clinic of the Jacksonville Clinical society was held yesterday, with a large attendance of physicians. The program was carried out according to schedule, being given at Passavant hospital in the morning and at Norbury sanitarium in the afternoon.

Service Star Legion In Session Wednesday

A well attended meeting of the Service Star Legion was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Turner Carriel. A business session was first held, at which many matters of importance to the Legion were given attention.

Miss Elinor Andre, accompanied by Miss Marie Alexander, sang a group of songs. Her voice, clear and sweet, was most pleasing and her interpretation delighted the audience. The numbers rendered were "Morning" by Speaks, "Nannie Song" by Ware and "Big Brown Bear" by Bucca. The Legion officers and members are very grateful to these musicians for their contribution to the program, and to Prof. Kritch who arranged for their coming.

The address of the afternoon was by Dr. Andrew Rule of Illinois college, and it was one which will not soon be forgotten by those present. The Legion members felt that could they only do their little part in carrying out his idea for peace in the world, a future of joy and hope would await the nations of the earth. Among other things Dr. Rule said: "Christ said, 'Love your enemies.' Ignorance is always suspicious. Let the nations come together and hatred will disappear, and legacy of peace will come to our children and our children's children. This we owe to them."

He spoke with much feeling to the war mothers, for his wife's mother was entitled to three stars, one of them a gold star, and his own mother had four stars, two of them gold ones, and had it not been for an accident a third star would have been added for him, as he was at one time on the verge of leaving for Gallipoli, where the average life of a soldier was ten days.

BIRTHS CANCEL DATE FOR CATHEDRAL CHOIR

The Redpath chaletauqua bureau has cancelled the engagement of the Russian Cathedral Choir, which was to have appeared here on Nov. 9. The choir was coming to this city under the auspices of the Girls' Club of the high school. The school authorities regret to announce the action of the Redpath bureau in cancelling the date, as the announcement of the coming of the Russian singers had attracted considerable interest and roused anticipation. It is hoped, however, to secure some other valuable attraction later in the year.

C. & A. DOING RECORD FREIGHT BUSINESS

W. G. Blerd, receiver for the Chicago & Alton, believes that 1923 will be the most notable year in the history of the property. There is every reason to believe that the total gross earnings for the twelve months will be a record breaker, based on those for the first nine months. Mr. Blerd believes that the high class of service that the company is now giving the public, in both passenger and freight, is responsible for the steady increase.

The freight traffic department has been able to land enormous quantities of new and profitable tonnage, largely due to the fact that the power of the company is in first class condition, insuring rapid movement, while yard facilities and yard forces have cooperated with the road crews to get the trains over the road. Altho the mileage of the Alton between Kansas City and Chicago is slightly longer than that of the Santa Fe, the Alton has been able to make a very fine showing in relation to expeditious handling of meat, stock and other commodities and the new business, that of handling grapes from California, would indicate that the company is attracting attention by its rapid movement of all traffic offered.

The movement of high tariff freight between Chicago and St. Louis. This, too, has been given special attention, and the result has been gratifying to the management in relation to very heavy offering of tonnage at both terminals.

ILLINOIS C. OF C. SOON TO MEET

Local Organization Hope to Send Large Delegation—J. H. Dial Named Forum Chairman—Local C of C Affairs Discussed

Chamber of Commerce directors were in session Thursday night, with President R. Y. Rowe presiding. Reports from the commercial division, the industrial committee and the city plan committee were made by Secretary Welch, who explained the several lines of work now being fostered by these committees.

The annual meeting of the Illinois chamber of commerce is to be held Oct. 16 and 17 in Chicago and it was the suggestion of President Rowe and Secretary Welch that the Jacksonville organization should have more representatives than merely the three accredited delegates. The five cities having the largest number of delegates will be entitled to five minutes each on the program to tell about the advantages of their respective cities. As about 1200 delegates attend the convention from all parts of the state, a fine opportunity for publicity is given to the cities with the largest delegations.

A number of men of prominence will be present to make addresses and various matters of importance to business men of the state will be presented. It is the hope of the directors that a number of members can make the trip to Chicago, in order to attend this convention, and that others who are to have business in the city at any early date may shape their plans so that they also may attend the meeting.

Members who can attend are requested to get into communication with Secretary Welch and will be given the necessary credentials.

J. H. Dial, who served very successfully during the past year as forum chairman, was reappointed to that position for the coming season. Mr. Dial will probably have a session of his committee at an early date, when arrangements will be made for a series of forum meetings.

Secretary Welch told of the discussion that has been had by some of the members of the commercial division relating to the establishment of a credit bureau as a chamber of commerce activity. In many other cities chambers of commerce maintain chambers of commerce which are of great value to retailers in establishing the financial standing of their customers.

A letter was read from Rev. M. L. Pontius, copying information that the Disciples of Christ will hold their annual convention in this city next September, when 600 delegates may be expected. The delegates expressed their appreciation of the activity of Mr. Pontius in securing this convention.

Several other matters of business were considered before the hour of adjournment.

FIRE PREVENTION DAY AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Fire Prevention Day was observed very effectively yesterday at Illinois Woman's college, both at the exercise in chapel and in demonstrations on the lawn in the evening.

At chapel in the morning, speeches were made, in which the many dangers of fires and the extreme carelessness with people in general treat them, were brought out. At that time, also, demonstrations were given of ways to prevent fires and of extinguishing them. In the evening the demonstrations were made even more effective by the use of bonfires about the campus.

Fire Prevention Day is annually observed at I. W. C. and the good that it is doing, and has already done, can easily be seen in the fact that there are not only a much smaller number of fires, but an increasing number of devices introduced and used for the prevention of fires.

SPENT DAY WITH J. S. FINLEY

H. J. Rodgers, Rev. W. E. Spoonst, Joshua Vasconcellos and W. J. Brady have returned from an automobile trip to the northern part of the state. Their return was hastened on account of the funeral of S. O. Barr.

KIWANIS SHELTER IS DEDICATED TO YOUTH

Boys and Girls Will Have Privilege of Woodland Cabin East of City—Many Attend Program and Supper

About one hundred members of the local Kiwanis club, their wives and guests were present last evening at the dedication of the new scout and camp fire cabin erected by the club on the hard road just seven miles from the public square east. The president C. Y. Rowe, called the meeting to order and introduced F. E. Farrell, chairman of the program committee, who in turn introduced Dr. W. P. Duncan, S. G. Chumley and Lee Sullivan, the committee in charge of erecting the cabin. Dr. Duncan explained the reasons for the project, emphasizing the necessity for a camp for the Scouts within the regulation hiking distance of the city.

Dr. Duncan then introduced Miss Elinor Moore, on whose farm the camp is located. She expressed her pleasure in being able to contribute to the enterprise and in the help which the club was extending to boys and girls. Mr. Chumley and Mr. Sullivan each told of the co-operation given by the club members in erection of the building. The entire work was done by Kiwanians.

Ben Roodhouse accepted the camp in behalf of the Scouts, and Miss Alice Williams performed a like office in behalf of the Camp Fire girls.

Rev. George E. Stickney told something of the work being planned by the club for underprivileged boys. He announced the adoption of the big brother idea, by which members will take charge of individual boys and give them sufficient work to enable them to pay scout dues and buy uniforms. It is probable that the club will definitely sponsor a scout troop made up of these boys.

Rev. Thomas Smith talked of boys in general and gave some helpful inspiration for the work of helping the boys and girls to enjoy the opportunities of outdoor life and nature study, such as the woodland camp affords. Another speaker was Homer Henley, who told several stories of work among boys. It was announced that a telephone would be installed at the camp, so that parents could keep in touch with their children during the encampment there. A caretaker will be on guard on nights when girls are quartered at the cabin, and every precaution will be used to insure safety and care for the youths who enjoy the privileges of the camp.

At the close of the program William Berryman introduced some clever and amusing musical stunts. Supper of a substantial nature was served, and the big fire place in the assembly room was officially dedicated.

J. H. Bullard of Douglas, Wyoming was in the city yesterday. He is visiting his brother, Dr. Joseph Bullard of Waverly. The brothers have not met for 35 years and the visit is most happy.

The litter nominated by J. W. Rawlings for the Ton Litter Contest of the Farm Bureau won first place reaching a weight of 2372 pounds in six months. A litter nominated by E. J. Reid reached the weight of 2015 1/2 pounds and therefore qualified for second prize. The Rawlings litter are Durocs while the Reid litter are Poland Chinas. The committee was composed of Ben McCarty, C. N. Kinnett, Austin Patterson, Charles N. Wyatt. The local prizes were offered by the Farrell State bank. Mr. Rawlings will receive $75 from that source and Mr. Reid $40.

The Duroc Record association will also give $50 to Mr. Rawlings provided all the rules of the Illinois Ton Litter club have been followed. There were originally 23 litters in this contest. The results show how difficult it is to produce a ton of pork from one litter in six months.

Interesting Figures Given on Illinois Farm Production

The Morgan County Farm Bureau has received an interesting analysis of the income derived from sales of products from Illinois farms last year. The figures were prepared by the Department of Research of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Illinois farmers sold $470,000,000 worth of products in 1922. There were 237,181 farms in the state and the gross sales receipts were, therefore, $2,066 per farm. The value of all farm property in Illinois in 1919 was $6,667,000,000 and the sales turn-over was 11.6 per cent of this capital sum.

Sales of crops brought Illinois farmers 38 per cent of their cash income; sales of livestock, 35 per cent; and animal products, 27 per cent.

The leading items were hogs, of which $89,000,000 worth were sold; dairy products, furnishing $85,000,000 cash return; corn, $71,000,000; cattle, $55,000,000; wheat, $47,000,000; poultry and eggs, $37,500,000; and oats, $24,000,000.

Corn and hogs together brought in $160,000,000 or 34 per cent of the total cash receipts. Cattle supplied 12 per cent of the gross receipts, dairy products, 18 per cent, and poultry, eight per cent.

The Department of Research also states that prospects for the crop year 1923-24 are somewhat better in Illinois than for the country as a whole, as corn and oats crops are especially large compared with last year and the general price tendencies for these grains have been upward. The income from the livestock and dairy industries promises to be at least no less than last year.

Co-op Marketing Pays Big in Adams County

That co-operative marketing of agricultural products pays farmers well is illustrated in Adams county which is one of the leading counties in Illinois in the co-operative movement, says a statement received by the Morgan County Farm Bureau from the Illinois Agricultural association.

Over $800,000 worth of dairy products, fruits and vegetables, and livestock were marketed co-operatively in Adams county during the first nine months of 1923; livestock sales alone totaling over $600,000. The livestock was handled by the Adams County Shipping association, which is said to be the largest county-wide association of its kind in Illinois.

Milk producers who marketed thru the Quincy Co-operative Milk Producers association received approximately 55 per cent of the customer's dollar after overhead expenses, dividend reserve, and general reserve fund had been deducted. The presence of the association and its production of highest quality milk increased the consumption of milk in Quincy by 25 per cent during the last year, according to the report of the Quincy board of health.

The Western Illinois Fruit Exchange at Quincy has marketed strawberries, cherries, cabbages, potatoes and raspberries during the summer months, and is now busy marketing the large apple crop.

Potatoes netted exchange members 99 cents per bushel as compared with an average of from 50 to 60 cents paid by local dealers. A net price of $1.04 per crate was returned to growers who marketed cabbages thru the exchange, while speculators paid an average of 75 cents per crate.

WHITE HALL SENIORS VISIT SPRINGFIELD

White Hall, Oct. 11.—Forty-five members of the senior class of the White Hall high school left for Springfield at 6:30 a. m. in nine autos to visit the Lincoln monument and home, and also the state house and other notable points. Supt. D. H. Wells was assisted by Ray Bechtold and Miss Georgine Piper in the management of the tour. It was expected that a stop would be made at Jacksonville if time permitted. Thus is inaugurated a new idea in local school affairs.

A Serious Time Indeed

is that time when a Surgical Operation is to be considered.

During that act your life is in the hands of others and it may never be yours again. That depends only upon the SKILL and ABILITY of those directing the KNIFE and the after care.

BUTLER BRINGS 1000 TO ILLINOIS FIELD
URBANA, Ill., Oct. 11.—Over at Indianapolis they must think pretty well of Butler's chances against Illinois Saturday. For Pat Page's Bulldogs will be followed to Illinois field by 1,000 rooters, headed by a band. The Hoosier rooters will come on a special train which will arrive Saturday afternoon.
From all over Indiana other Hoosiers are coming to cheer the Page outfit. There will be an even larger crowd than witnessed the Illinois victory over Nebraska. But there will be plenty of seats for everybody—even at the last minute. Weekly a rumor spreads around the state that Illinois field is all sold out. This cannot be its appearance today.
Bob Zupke will take no chances of losing to Butler. A year ago Zup went east to see Iowa play Yale. As a result the coach nearly won from Iowa a week later but Illinois was nosed out by Butler while he was gone. Iowa plays at Lafayette this Saturday but the hope is that Zupke will stay right at home and tend to the business of obtaining vengeance.
The Illini have had a good rest after the bout with Nebraska and they are feeling fine. The hope is that the same lineup will start against the Hoosiers. There is a possibility that Wallie McIlwain may be relieved by either Crawford or Mauer. Harry Hall, the new quarterback, has been resting and Steve Coutechie is handling the team in practice. But Hall is likely to be back Saturday.
Saturday's appearance against Butler is the last home bow of the Illini until homecoming Nov. 3. This fact will swell the crowd for many rooters who missed out on the Nebraska game want to see the lads in action.
For the benefit of out of town people who desire to obtain tickets for the Stadium games, Frank Beach, ticket manager, announced that his office would be open after Saturday's game. Duca's are selling rapidly for the Chicago game, it is announced.

Sound Football System Is Gridiron's Big Asset, Says Famous Coach

BY ROBERT C. ZUPPKE
Football Coach, University of Illinois, Author of "Football Technique and Tactics"
The first six plays are what I call a play cycle. These plays we might say are related to each other, starting from the same formations. They need not be used in the order in which they will be given.
The ideal method of attack from this group would be to arrange the plays for the purpose of employing the peculiarities of the individual backs in such a way that the defense cannot analyze the intention of the offense from looking at the formation, or quickly observing with the snap of the ball the telltale initial movement of the backs; in other words the defense should not be informed previous to the execution of the play whether the attack has planned to employ the second, fourth or sixth play.

These six plays are fundamentally sound and make an excellent basic system; in fact, they may be the main ground gainers of the season. They have been used successfully at Illinois through a number of seasons.
The six plays in the cycle may all start as drawn, the men lining up in their positions on the right after each play, and then, if desired, be directed to the left shift by signal, using a slow shift. Or they may "hep" into this formation by a quick shift from some preliminary formation from which the ultimate direction of the shift cannot be previously determined.
Proper defenses are set up against each play in the diagrams to follow. Tomorrow we will discuss Play No. 1, an angle play between defense tackle and end.

Money Won't Buy Loyalty

Loyalty, vigilance, alertness and service are four elements which every business man would like to believe are inherent in all of his employees.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has abundant evidence to show that such qualities are common to all but a negligible portion of its employees.

This evidence comes in the form of unsolicited letters. As an example we quote one received from Mr. Wm. E. Small, of Fargo, North Dakota, written under date of September 11, in which he says:

"I wish to acknowledge the courtesy of your station attendant, Mr. Grassell, of Grafton. I am used to receiving the best treatment at the hands of your Fargo Service Station men but this young man has the idea of service and accommodation raised to the nth power.

"The soil around Grafton is about the slimiest, greasiest, blackest, and most all-round detestable stuff in the world to get smeared up with but, notwithstanding this and notwithstanding the fact that I was a total stranger to him and not one of his regular customers, when I drove into your station at Grafton after an unusually heavy down-pour of rain last week your agent at that point insisted that I remain in my car while he attached the chains over wheels and under fenders literally plastered with Grafton gumbo. When informed that I intended driving through to Grand Forks he not only put on the chains but wired them on and made an expert job of it. When he had finished he was covered from head to foot with mud and slime but refused absolutely to accept a cent for the service rendered.

"I know of no other way to square accounts than to report the matter to headquarters. As I drove down to Grand Forks through a sea of mud but clean and comfortable I swore eternal gratitude to my friends, the Standard Oil Company, for all time to come. You are giving us real service up here in the Red River Valley and I, for one, appreciate it."

It was loyalty to the Company's ideals of service that caused this service station attendant to go far out of his way to render Mr. Small an extraordinary degree of service in an extraordinary situation—and he made another friend for the Company.

Such loyalty cannot be bought—it must be earned.

Skilful management is one thing—shrewd buying is another—scientific manufacturing processes constitute still another—but the loyalty—the spirit—the morale—of the 27,000 employees is what has made the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) great—in size—in achievements—and in service—to the thirty million people of the Middle West.

FACTS

According to records in the Secretary of State's office, Studebaker outsold all other makes of cars in the first six months of 1923 in Wayne County, Michigan (of which Detroit is the county seat) with the exception of Ford and Chevrolet.

Detroit knows motor cars and motor car values, because the majority of the population is engaged directly or indirectly in some phase of the motor car industry.

Detroit knows Studebaker because of the large production of Studebaker cars in that city, and Detroit is partial to Studebaker cars for just one reason—the merit of the product.

GOLF CUP TROPHY GOES TO OSBORNE

City Golf Tournament Closes — Played in Four Flights — The Several Standings.

The City Golf tournament which has been in progress for the past month, came to a close with the final thirty-six hole matches being played off last Sunday. The tournament has been run in four flights of sixteen players each in order to equalize the quality of play among the many enthusiasts who wished to participate. Following are the results of the championships flights:

In the first flight, which is contested every year over the Municipal Links for the honor of retaining the championship cup for one year, Marcy Osborne was awarded the match by default from A. R. Gregory who left the city on a vacation before the match was allowed to be played. Wilbur Jeffries won the final eighteen holes and the championship of the second flight by default from Wood Phillips. The first eighteen holes ended with Jeffries being five holes up on Phillips, who defaulted the rest of the match.

The third flight resulted in a close match, Howard Anders defeating Ed Tomlinson one up in the thirty-six holes. Bob Mullenix won the fourth flight by default from Jack Reynolds.

Prizes of six golf balls are to be awarded to the champions of each of the three lower flights and awards of three golf balls are to be made to the runners-up in each of the four flights. The winner of the first flight is given possession of the city cup for one year and may secure permanent possession of the trophy by becoming city champion for three years in succession.

Although the matches have been held somewhat later this year than last, much interest has been displayed to the last, and with the exception of the unexpected defaults in the final rounds, have been well played. Much progress has been made in the past year in the number of players turning in creditable scores. It is to be hoped that with another year more stringent rules may be adopted so as to prevent a repetition of the last-minute defaults. Thus a more interesting tournament from the public's viewpoint may be provided.

J. A. Metcalf, Charles Metcalf and Rev. Armstrong were recent visitors in the city from Greenfield.

Twenty railroads averaged $1.96; net loss .57.
High 1923; 90.51; low 79.33

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Stock
prices displayed a reactionary tone during the greater part of today's session in response to recent attacks by bear traders and extensive liquidation of a number of low priced shares due in part to calling of bank loans against which these issues were pledged as collateral.

Short covering operations designed to even up commitments
over the holiday brought about a moderate rally in some of the leaders just before the close.

Acute weakness again developed in the copper stocks on publication of a report that September shipments, foreign and domestic, by American producers approximated 160,000,000 pounds
as compared with 205,000,000 in August and 167,500,000 in July.

United States Steel dropped to $6 within half a point of the year's low but closed unchanged at $6.25.
Heavy liquidation of producers and refiners, which dropped 3 cents, was attributed to the breaking up of a pool in that stock following a call of loans.

Heaviness of Famous Players, which dropped as low as 68 1/2, also was ascribed to necessitous selling.

While the weakness of producers and refiners caused some sympathetic selling of other oil shares, the group as a whole remained relatively firm. Another reduction in crude production was regarded as constructive but this was offset, in part by reports that several companies will need new financing to carry stocks in storage over the winter.

United States Industrial Alcohol moved up a point on an announcement of an increase of two cents a gallon in alcohol prices
but it forfeited part of its gain
before the close. Oil money opened at five per cent but eased
to 4 1/2 before the close.

Some buying of United States government treasury 4 1/2s was noted, the bonds moving up 7-32
of a point. Most of the other active U. S. government issues held relatively steady.

Total bond sales (par value)
$6,304,000.

SEVERAL ACCIDENTS
NEAR WHITE HALL.
 White Hall, Oct. 11.—Eleanor, aged six years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Roodhouse, was seriously bruised about 5 p. m. Wednesday while on her way home from the Gregory school.

The family resides on the Roodhouse farm, three miles south of town, and the school is one mile south of town. The little girl was trailing a small wagon, and as she stepped aside she was run over by an auto from the opposite direction, driven by Mrs. Ward Hill, the car passing completely over her and dragging her some distance. The left knee is lacerated, the entire left side of the face is skinned from the dragging and the back of the head is bruised, giving concern for a time as to the possibility of a skull fracture.

Frank Ornellas, foreman of the track gang of the industrial electric line, required the services of a doctor Wednesday in caring for a few broken ribs and bruises, resulting from his being pitched about when a car loaded with rails was derailed.

Lynn Nichols is again on duty at the Lucht bakery, after nursing bruises about the head, face and shoulders as the result of the Stockel delivery horse, running away with him a few days ago, the rig passing over his body.

AN INTERESTING PLACE
 One of the interesting places to visit in this county is that of Louis Calloway, a short distance north of old Bethel. Mr. Calloway has a farm well diversified. He has several hundred pecan trees of pretty good size, a fine apple orchard, a large number of fine persimmon trees, a splendid list of pear trees, a chestnut orchard and in addition a good line of small fruit.

He has these valuable things and knows how to take care of them and the inside of the home is as well conducted as the outside so that he and his good wife make a team that gets there. Mr. Calloway is also a great reader and has stored his mind with much that is valuable.

Some time since he was conversing with a gentleman who had been several years in Palestine and Mr. Calloway displayed so much knowledge of the country the traveler asked him how long a time he spent in the Holy Land deeming it incredible that a man would learn so much from observation.

Mrs. Laura M. Rockwood of the Merritt vicinity was a local shopper Thursday.
